Cromwell and Gambetta.
New York Sun.
The Figaro says that since Cromwell, who changed his sleeping place nearly every night and studiously kept his movements a secret, no one has aimed at more incognito than M. Gambetta. That statesman has, as says L'Espresso, lately taken a house in the Rue St. Didier, but the owner was led to suppose by an old lady who came on the business that he was leasing it to a Miss Leon, who wanted it for her daughter. In Germany M. Gambetta travelled as "M. de Massabie, a French gentleman."

A Gladdy Father-in-law.
Two members of the most fashionable London clubs have just had an unbecomingly row in the street. As Colonel Charles Napier Sturt was entering the Marlborough Club, on Pall Mall, he was assaulted by his father-in-law, Mr. Edwin Taitton, of the Junior Carlton Club, who called him a scoundrel and wanted to lay hands on his head, saying he would brain him. Mr. Taitton was compelled by a police magistrate to give bail to keep the peace in £1,000.

George Wright and Jennie Murray.
Albany Argus.
George Wright of West Troy made love to Jennie Murray of Lansingburg. In due time he proposed and, he says, was accepted. He then presented her with a watch and chain and other articles. They were to have been married last Thursday, and when George went to his intended bride's house, all dressed up, she changed her mind. He then had her arrested for false pretences, and she was locked up. She was then arraigned in court and discharged. She claims that the presents were stolen from her.

THE RENO GAZETTE

For 1882 will be a better paper than it has ever been before. It now gets all the latest news dispatches, and is thus placed many months ahead of any other paper. It has been the policy of the proprietor to make the Gazette a first-class local paper, with full accounts of everything that occurs in Reno, or Washoe County, or the State of Nevada. The resources of the country are carefully studied and written up by able correspondents, and the Gazette has done as much as all the other papers combined in this respect.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE

Contains all the reading matter of the Daily, without its advertisements. It is an eight-page paper, with good, plain letters and clean, white paper. It has increased in an extraordinary manner in the last six months, and is now growing rapidly. Its interesting matter, crisp editorials and late news make its popularity. By availing themselves of our club rates, the Weekly Gazette costs only half a dollar a year. It is given with the Bulletin, Chronicle, Examiner or Record-Union, which cost alone a dollar and fifty cents. For three dollars, with Harper's publications and the Argonaut for four dollars and fifty cents a year, and with other papers in proportion. Send for sample copies.

THE OZONE WAR

Almost all men who are pitted against each other in business are super sensitive. They resent any approach to an attack with a zeal almost approaching to fury. Human nature is about the same in newspaper business as it is everywhere else, and although the GAZETTE, and we believe the Journal, also, tries to keep out of wars, yet still they break out and rage occasionally. When the Journal tries to make its readers believe that advertisements which appear in the GAZETTE and not in the Journal, are frauds, it lays itself open to the charge of jealousy. It cannot claim to be protecting the public, for there was nothing to show that the Ozone people were dishonest. The Journal cannot possibly be more careful of the use of its columns than we are of ours. We might refer to instances but will not. It would doubtless be a good thing in a business way for the Journal to injure the GAZETTE as an advertising medium, but it is not business for the GAZETTE to permit it to be done unjustly. It might benefit the Journal to cast discredit upon our telegraphic report, but we get it fresh and it speaks for itself. It might benefit the Journal if it could make anybody believe what it doesn't believe itself, that the GAZETTE gets any favors from the railroad that anyone cannot get who does the same business. It might be a good business proposition for it to make somebody believe that the Central Pacific exercises some influence or authority over the GAZETTE, but that is contradicted by the records, and has long since been dropped by our worst enemies. A newspaper in Reno would not be worth ten dollars a year to a railroad, and they don't want any here. Certainly we would not work as hard as we have to build up a newspaper for any company or any person but ourselves.

LET THE DEAD AND THE BEAUTIFUL REST.

It becomes more apparent each day that the entire matter of the famous short-hand reporter's bill was a conspicuous blunder. It was unwisely conceived, and but for our timely discussion of the question in the interest of tax-payers, the blunder would have been paid for.

We do not believe there is anyone concerned in the matter who does not wish himself free of all connection with it.

We do not believe that Justice Young ever dreamed of sanctioning such an outrageous expense, or that he now feels in any manner friendly to the claim as presented.

If we comprehend his honor's position he will accept what is certainly the sentiment of the people. He will express the matter further or allow it to be used in any further discussion of this famous bill for rent.

The strength of public opinion upon this question, as expressed in these columns, has been such as to change the entire Board of Commissioners, and it ought to convince everyone concerned as to their further duty.

THE COMING STATE PAPERS.

We agree with the Bulletin that the papers which will be laid before Congress by President Arthur and Secretary Folger are awaited with great interest. The desire to learn what President Arthur has to say on a variety of topics is very great. The local and foreign questions which he is expected to treat are very grave. Among the former may be mentioned the general financial problem, tariff revision and civil service reform. There is enough in these three questions to make or unmake a half dozen administrations. The pressure from the tariff is both internal and external. The internal is for a redistribution of protection and more of it, which is a very intricate question, and one in connection with which any number of corans can be trodden upon. The external pressure will be from France and England. It may take the form of advantages for certain modifications or reprisals in case of refusal. But no large amount of trouble need be apprehended on that score. The commercial supremacy of the United States is being irresistibly developed.

Congress assembled in Washington yesterday and the usual formal opening, roll call and organization followed. General Keifer was elected Speaker of the House. The business of the session will not be well under way before Monday next.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

From Dispatches to Evening Gazette.

EASTERN.

THE ASSASSIN'S TRIAL.

He Wants to Know Where the Hereditary Numbness Lies—His Trial is "High-toned"—Wants to Call Conkling, Grant and Company.

The Guiteau affair proceeded yesterday. Speaker Randall appeared and was excused until Wednesday. Guiteau was unusually scared and begged the officers to take him into Court by the back entrance; and with a trembling and cringing gait he shuffled through the angry crowd, with subject fear depicted on his face, and did not regain his composure for several minutes.

Guiteau said he wanted the experts to decide whether it was insane to be impelled by the Deity.

Dr. Kennon, managing editor of the Chicago Medical Review, testified that he believed the prisoner insane. The prosecution examined him at length.

David put a hypothetical case, using the term, "like a common, vulgar criminal."

Guiteau turned to David, and with an air of immense superiority, said: "There is nothing vulgar about this case. It's all high-toned." [Laughter, quickly suppressed by the Court.] Guiteau suddenly interrupted the examination, and despite Scoville's efforts to restrain him, broke out in a severe denunciation of his late wife, saying he had just noticed a discourse from her which was full of misstatements, and if she came into Court to testify against him, he would show her up. He rattled on for some minutes but finally quieted down.

Witness was about to be dismissed, when Guiteau detained him and said, with an air of great seriousness: "Doctor, I want to ask you where the hereditary numbness of the brain exists? Won't a man show it whenever there is cause?" Witness responded in the affirmative. "That will do," said Guiteau, with the air of a lawyer who had made a decided point.

Richard Hinton, editor of the Washington Gazette, then testified regarding Guiteau's absurd campaign speech. He was not complimentary to Guiteau and finally said that prisoner was a nuisance about the Republican Committee rooms.

Guiteau—You were a nuisance. I'd rather be hung as a man than acquitted as a fool, and I don't want any more of this kind of evidence. Witness said he was a laughing stock as far as he could see Guiteau (violently to Scoville)—If you put any more of these cranky fellows on the stand I'll square you again. That was a great piece of impudence on your part to put Judge Davis on the stand without consulting me. I am no fool, and I won't allow you to make me out one.

Dr. Charles Nicholas, of the Bloomington Asylum, testified: If the evidence to which I have listened is correct I should say Guiteau is insane.

Dr. Folsom, of Boston, made the same answer to a similar hypothetical case stated by Scoville. Dr. William Geddig of the Government Insane Asylum, Dr. James McBride of Milwaukee, and Dr. Channing of Brooklyn, Massachusetts, agreed in the same opinion.

Scoville announced that he had only two or three witnesses before closing his case. Guiteau here demanded subpoenas for Conkling, Grant, Jewell, and others, and made an incoherent harangue which seemed to please his counsel vastly. Judge Cox finally silenced him.

The Minneapolis Fire.

MINNEAPOLIS, December 6.

No more bodies have been recovered. It is believed that only 4 lives were lost, which are as follows: Cornelius Fredericks, Assistant Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, John Tahay, fireman, Alex Bjork a laborer, and R. R. Robinson, a millwright. The number of wounded was seven, none fatal.

Fires.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., December 6.

Cherry, O'Connor & Co.'s manufacturing depot in the penitentiary, has burned, with many goods; loss, over insurance, $350,000.

BALTIMORE, Md., December 6. Haight's cannery has burned. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $160,000.

Confederate State Notes.

WASHINGTON, December 6.

United States Treasurer Gillfillan has informed a correspondent who had applied to him for information on the subject of Confederate State notes that the United States Government has never made an offer for such currency, and does not desire any.

Jefferson Davis at Sea.

NEW YORK, December 6.

It was learned in this city yesterday that Jefferson Davis sailed from Liverpool on one of the steamships now overdue at this port.

After a Slice of Montana.

WASHINGTON, December 6.

Senator Sanders to-day introduced a bill to extend the northern boundary of Nebraska to take in 600,000 acres of Montana.

Miller's Anti-Chinese Bill.

NEW YORK, December 6.

A Times editorial on the bill introduced in the Senate yesterday by Miller, of California, for the restriction of Chinese immigration says: It is merely a provision to give life and force to the clauses of the new treaty with China. Many people have reason to believe that the treaty would carry out its own stipulations and provisions, subject only to municipal regulations, but the treaty will be a dead letter until its provisions are put into satisfactory form by Congress. The agreement that certain classes of Chinese emigrants shall be forbidden to enter our ports, and that certain others shall freely come and go, it is expected will be the subject of National legislation. The purpose of Miller's bill, we take it, is to enact into law the treaty provisions. It is noticeable that the terms of the bill are precisely those of the treaty, in its description of persons to be excluded from, and persons to be admitted in the United States.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, December 6.

Carlisle denies that he will soon introduce a resolution to investigate Secretary Windom's financial policy.

Garland's tariff commission bill provides for 9 Commissioners, Three Senators, three Representatives and three Civilians, to examine into the relations of consumer and producer, into the relative merits of the specific and ad valorem systems, and what discriminations now exist, and changes that are necessary.

Latham's bill for punishment of attempts to take the life of the President or others charged with the duties of the office prefers punishment upon conviction as imprisonment for life. Such imprisonment to be by solitary confinement or hard labor, in the discretion of the Court.

The Republican Senators in caucus agreed to support Edmunds resolution continuing the Senate committee, and it was found they had numerical strength to adopt it, even if Davis votes with the Democrats, which is unlikely.

Some Democrats are dissatisfied with Bright, Sergeant-at-Arms, because he discharged several Democratic employees and appointed Republicans.

Clearing House Report.

BOSTON, December 6.

The Post says the clearings during the past week compare with those of last year same time, as follows: Gains—Philadelphia, 2.6; Baltimore, 2.5; Cincinnati, 46.9; St. Louis, 28.8; Chicago, 9.2. San Francisco, where trade is beginning to revive, gains 24.3 against 8.4, last year's decrease. New York, 16.6; Boston, 6.6; Memphis, 2.4; New Orleans, 3; Louisville, 25.7; Kansas City, 4.4; Indianapolis, 3.4; Cleveland, 38.8; Columbus, 16; Milwaukee, 2.6.

Committee Chairmanships.

WASHINGTON, December 6.

Concerning the chairmanship of the various committees of the House, the impression prevails that Judge Kelly of Pennsylvania will be appointed Chairman on Ways and Means, Hiscock Chairman on Appropriations, Kasson Chairman on Foreign Affairs, Robeson Chairman on Naval Affairs, and Crapo of Massachusetts or Townsend of Ohio Chairman on Banking and Currency. Dummell is mentioned as probable Chairman on Public Lands.

Chicago Matters.

CHICAGO, December 6.

The Mayor vetoed the ordinance to allow the Mutual Union Telegraph Company to string wires on poles through the streets, and the Council, by a vote of 22 ayes to 14 ayes refused to pass it over the veto.

The Dobler-Rowell walking match ended at 1:47 A. M., when it was announced that the former was too ill to continue the contest, and Rowell was declared winner.

Congressional Gossip.

WASHINGTON, December 6.

There is talk to-night among Republicans of the House, of adjournment within two or three days until Monday, for the purpose of giving Keifer a chance to prepare a list of committees by that day. The Ohio Republican Association, at a special meeting to-night, voted to tender a banquet to Keifer at an early day out of compliment to his election as Speaker.

Heel and Toe.

CHICAGO, December 6.

The walking match between Dobler and Rowell was about decided at midnight. Dobler had over trained and consequently vomited and purged freely, putting him far behind. At 1 o'clock he was off the track and the score stood Rowell 30 miles, Dobler 21 miles.

Seven Dollars Worth of Grief.

CHICAGO, December 6.

Sam You is full of sorrow because a white woman known by the sobriquet of Sadie Drawers got $7 from him to deck herself for her bridal and then jilted him, said she didn't love him, etc. He wants legal redress.

Veterans in Congress.

NEW YORK, December 6.

A Tribune's Washington special on the scenes at the opening of Congress says: As the old soldier, General Rogers, went down the aisle to greet the venerable ex-Vice President of the late Southern Confederacy, his wonderful erect carriage showed signs of age, and the elastic step and quick, nervous movement of twenty years ago had departed, but as he entered into an animated conversation with Stephens, who occupied his invalid's chair in the area before the Clark's desk, his face lighted up, his eyes twinkled, and he appeared less unlike the victor of Corinth and Iuka. Stephens was pale and emaciated, but bright as ever, and received the warm congratulations of the members generally.

The dashing ex-Confederate cavalry leader, General Wheeler, of Alabama, wears his years lightly, and except that his head has become slightly bald and his beard lightly silvered, he does not appear a day older than he did at the end of the war.

David Davis Declares.

WASHINGTON, December 6.

Senator David Davis stated positively to-night that he would not vote to turn out any of the present officers or employees of the Senate.

It is reported that a man named Paul was run over above Truckee today and badly hurt.

Personal property assessed this year in Washoe was $1,127,815. Real property, $2,524,065. Total, $3,651,880.

"I don't think that fellow Keifer is much of a speaker," said old Sycamore today. "Why didn't they get Ingersoll or Conkling—somebody who could talk?"

Nashby received a new lot of holiday goods to-day and his vigilant and efficient thermometer made the following notes: At 7, 42; 9, 46; 11, 47; 1, 50; 3, 50.

Chas. Knust has got in some very nice prepared oat-meal. It has the concentrated strength of the raw material, and only needs beating to be ready for the table.

If people will give the GAZETTE a chance to bid on job work before sending it to California it will try hard to please and keep down prices. They will thus get the benefit by sustaining home industry.

"I was confined to my bed for four months," says Mr. Charles Lowe, 508 Eighteenth street, New York, "with the rheumatism, and can say that the use of three bottles of St. Jacobs Oil made me a sound man. It is regarded here as the greatest remedy of the age."

Oh! How Lovely!

Lovely, indeed; and Oh! so very tempting, as you look into the first show-case and your eyes get dazzled by the brilliant display of sparkling diamond rings, pins and ear-rings in their peculiarly novel and tasteful execution of the very latest designs; those charming novelties in sets of gold, quartz, pearls, cameo, amethyst, all set in the finest gold, chased and enameled; fine watches in gold and silver cases, the works of which are all guaranteed and adjusted to heat, cold and position, are the wonder of the age; neck and watch chains, which in quality and reliability in wear can be recommended with confidence. The next case is full of all imaginable styles of sleeve buttons and elegant bracelets, and represents the most fashionable novelties. The entire wall displays an elegant assortment of silver ware and clocks, and the prices of all the articles have been put down to manufacturers' rates. Such a place Wm. Goeggel keeps on Virginia st.

Good Home.

James Webster, father of Judge William Webster, died at his home in Pleasant valley on Sunday last, after a brief illness. The Webster family have been old and valued residents of Washoe county. James Webster has been known to all old settlers as one of those sturdy and self-reliant pioneers who have done much to open this great western empire to the world. He was a hale and hearty old man going down quietly to his rest, and the end was not expected for many years. In his last hour the father had the close attention and care of his son and family, to whom the community extends its sincere expressions of sympathy.

New Styles.

An immense stock of the latest styles of holiday presents is being daily received from both East and West by R. E. Queen. Buying in large lots from the leading houses in the largest cities, and thoroughly acquainted with both Eastern and Western markets, he is enabled to offer his patrons finer goods for less money than any other house. All are invited to call and see the new styles of holiday presents to be had only at Queen's drug store.

A Genuine Surprise.

A large and interesting party of friends and neighbors assembled last evening at the residence of S. E. Kimball and gave a very pleasant social and musical entertainment in honor of his only brother, Capt. S. S. Kimball, who is on a visit from Illinois.

FLANNAGAN'S FAULT.

What can be Learned Concerning the Quaver Condition of Assessor Flannagan's Accounts and His Failure to Report—He is $1,023.63 Behind.

Street talk has for some days centered about Assessor Flannagan and his financial condition. Various rumors have been started and laid at rest, but there were many who claimed to know that something was rotten in Denmark. The fact of Flannagan's absence, and his failure to report as required by law to the Recorder, did not serve to stimulate public confidence.

Inquiry at the court-house yesterday only served to show that Flannagan had failed for some unknown reason to do what he should have done. Upon Flannagan's arrival last night he was immediately consulted by his friends and bondsmen, and the truth seems to be that he did not know how he stands. The report this morning said that he was short from $1,000 to $1,500 in cash. His bondsmen held a meeting and resolved to meet the deficiency. With assistance Flannagan has been working all day to learn how he does stand. The accounts are in a muddled condition, and until the report is completed nothing definite can be known. The deficiency will, however, be about $1,000 in all probability. A mistake which Flannagan had made against himself for $890 has been discovered, which may help the deficiency materially.

A GAZETTE reporter had a talk with Assessor Flannagan this afternoon. He acknowledges that he is $1,023.63 short in his accounts, which, he said, will be paid to-night or to-morrow. He said a party in Virginia (Thos. Freehill) will put up $500 of the amount to-night and his bondsmen will pay the balance. His excuse is small salary and heavy traveling expenses on his assessing trip through Roop county.

RESULT OF INVESTIGATION.

He says he is square on his personal property returns; that the deficiency is on poll taxes, and makes the following report.

Poll-tax receipts received, $7,400, and accounted for as follows:

By cash to October.....$1,980 00
Collected by Treasurer.....2,604 00
Receipts returned.....664 00
Due from Steamboat Canal Company.....300 00
Receipts in Nevada and Oregon Co., safe.....200 00
Receipts delivered, but not paid for.....172 00
Cash in Treasurer's hands.....291 37
Assessor's salary applied.....166 00
.....$6377 37

Deficiency.....1022 63

He says his bondsmen want him to go ahead with his work and not resign; that his only show is for him to retain his office and redeem himself; and he feels confident of doing so if the people will give him a show, and not be too hard in their criticisms and hopes his friends will withhold their indignation until he can prove to them that dishonesty was not the cause.

Flannagan's bond is $5,000. The following gentlemen are his bondsmen: L. J. Flint, $2,000; J. Sunderland, $2,000; J. L. McFarlin, $1,000; A. J. Clark, $1,000; A. A. Longley, $1,000; S. M. Jamison, $1,000; Geo. Alt, $2,000.

County Fathers.

The following additional business was transacted by the Commissioners yesterday:

Petitions for $10 for Mrs. Clancy and Miss Anna J. Fay were granted! The sum of $150 was allowed for work on the road between Verdi and Essex.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of James Webster will take place from the M. E. Church to-morrow at 1 p. m. Friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited.

Death of Isaac Chamberlain.

From New Haven (Conn.) Morning Journal.

Many friends in this city will learn with sorrow and regret of the death of Isaac Chamberlain, a former New Haven man, which occurred November 19, in Reno. He died of cancer of the liver. He had been living for quite a number of years past at Reno, and his popularity was such that he was chosen constable, and later was promoted to be deputy sheriff, filling the latter office for some time past. A brother, William Chamberlain, has for many years been proprietor of the leading hotel in Nevada. The deceased went to San Francisco with his wife and child to get the benefit of the best medical skill, but all was unavailing. His family and his brother were with him in his last hours. The members of the old Fifteenth C. V. will mourn the loss of Sergeant-Major Chamberlain. He enlisted in Company I, and served as first sergeant and was promoted to be Sergeant-Major. He was a brave soldier, of generous heart and faithful in all the relations of life. A few years ago he submitted to an operation for the removal of one of his eyes, it being reported to him to save the other, and since that time his health had gradually failed. Deceased was a brother of the wife of Captain Griffing, of the Brig. Rising Sun.

Killed by the Cars.

This morning a light engine brought to Reno J. W. Adams, who was found this morning lying on the railroad track at bridge 26 above Verdi. He had been run over by the train and his legs and body badly crushed. He was taken to the County Hospital, where he died this afternoon. Adams was a native of Lynn, Massachusetts, and has been working in Truckee as a carpenter. A friend who knew him in Truckee says that he should have had some money on his person. None was found. It is supposed that Adams was riding on the brake beam and fell off.

Cause and Effect. The main cause of nervousness is indigestion, and that is caused by weakness of the stomach. No one can have sound nerves and good health without using Hop Bitters to strengthen the stomach, purify the blood and keep the liver and kidneys active, to carry off all the poisons and waste matter of the system. See another column.

Humbugged Again. I saw so much about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife, who was always doctoring and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I'm glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured, and she has just passed her eightieth birthday. I like such humbugging.—H. T. St. Paul.

UNCLE BEN JO'S
GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PANACEA.
UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1801. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same six proper distance off. This herb, Uncle J., as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very disagreeable and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part tops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, hairy-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle J. named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nera." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia, and rheumatism. I have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by
